

1-1-1935

The "Old Line"

Ames Forestry Club

Follow this and additional works at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester>

Part of the Forest Sciences Commons

Recommended Citation

Ames Forestry Club (1935) "The "Old Line"," Ames Forester: Vol. 23 , Article 16.

Available at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester/vol23/iss1/16>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ames Forester by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.

W. G. Baxter, '08—On March 1 I transferred from the Forest Service to the Land Policy Section. I was formerly Superintendent of Camp Custer F-12, Custer, South Dakota. My present headquarters are at Lincoln, Nebraska. I am in charge of the appraisal of 400,000 acres on the Pine Ridge Project. This detail is only a temporary withdrawal from the Forest Service.

Shirley Allen, '09—I helped to organize the C. C. C. camps in Minnesota in '33. During the summer of '34, I took an assignment as Inspector to the Pacific Coast group of National Parks. In November, '34, I went to Washington, D. C. to assist with the drafting of a National Park policy in regard to E. C. W. See and hear lots of good things about Ames Foresters and am proud of the men they turn out. Schreck doing well in the lumber business in Tawas, Michigan. Saw Jack Diemer.

R. L. Barrett, '11—Have not seen an Ames Forester in fifteen years.

H. H. Richmond, '12—Have completed four years of a ten year timber sales contracts, which calls for the removal of fifty million feet of government timber on the Chippewa National Forest.

B. Clark, '13—Harold Boeger was with me in Shenandoah this summer. He got married last summer and is now in Maquoketa camp.

W. H. Harley, '14—Still on the old job. Business has picked up the last month. C. A. Kupfer, '07, is located here as a representative of the Western Pine Association. Saw Cassidy a few weeks ago; still at Flag staff. Glad to see Forestry at Iowa State on the up grade.

O. H. Cassidy, '16—(Sends no news—only check for ten bucks toward the Forester. Thank you Cassidy,) "Do ye like wise."

W. R. Rumbaugh, '16—Have the largest exclusive ring neck pheasantry in Iowa.

Harly Quint, '17—Attended Iowa State College Alumni dinner at Beverly Hills, California. One hundred present.

C. J. Parker, '20—This is my third year of teaching printing at Miller Vocational High School in Minneapolis.

Milo Deming, '20—Work with Pickford. Saw Van Boskirk. Saw Watts at Ogden.

V. B. Hoyer, '20—Hoping that the new deal will get to consider the plight of the school marm.

E. Loy, '20—I am expecting an assignment to a district any time. Still happily married. Camp superintendent at present. Passed the J. F.

E. Pohle, '22—I cover the entire state of California as State Auditor. Would like to learn the names and addresses of Ames grads. I could chin with on my wanderings. Still hope to catch up with Swede Nelson and Correll. Have a new boy.

A. F. Miller, '23—Developing large nursery. C. A. Rindt is nurseryman in 45-million-tree nursery.

E. Tharp, '26—Handling small timber sales.

G. P. Pickford, '26—Have seen Deming and Hinkely, otherwise Ames men are scarce as hen's teeth.

C. Farnthworth, '26—Attended the second semester at the University of Michigan in '33, to get my Doctors Degree.

H. Greef, '26—Have two daughters.

N. Fullerton, '27—Am employed in blister rust control. Lundberg, '28 is a Lieutenant in Camp F-110.

E. Hill, '27—Unmarried. Prospects good. Enjoying good health. Getting bald-headed fast. Greetings. Saw Harold Scholtz.

G. Hutchings, '27—Still trying to scare the wolf from the door by feeding him rainbow trout. Had a good season at Public Fishing Pool at Estes Park, Colorado. When you come to Estes Park, stop at "Trout Heaven."

M. D. Jackson, '27—Saw Barney Higgins one and a half years ago. Have not heard from him since.

O. Latham, '27—Had summer employment during vacation at the Rocky Mountain Forest Experiment Station, Missoula, Montana, and the Coeur d'Alene Forest.

R. McKinley, '27—In April, I transferred to a good Ranger District on the Roosevelt National Forest, near Estes Park, Colorado. Had a long visit with G. B. Hartman. Have heard a great deal about McGinnis but have not seen him.

W. Schipull, '27—Visited with Holtz and Gotschalk at Zuni.

G. Turney, '27—Saw Pickford and Denning.

E. L. Vinton, '27—Played golf with Moser. Saw Wicks in Minneapolis. Saw Ray Olson and Ray Iverson, McLaren and McIntire, Frank and T. C. Smith, and Ted Kuba. Rindt announced at the Regional Planting conference that he had 80 miles of seed beds in his Forest Service nursery.

D. Ball, '28—Married Dec., 1933, to Helen F. Boyd of Waukesha, Wisc. Transferred from the Illinois Purchase Unit to present position. Saw D. H. Ich, Ranger, Park, Falls, Wisc.

V. Lau, '28—Enjoying my work, saw Art Holding and Ed Heacocks who is with the Weyerhaeuser at Long View, Wash.

W. Lepley, '28—Got my Ph. D. in Psychology. Have not seen an Ames Forester in a long time. If there are some near me I would appreciate hearing from them. Why not substitute the "Blue Ox" for the "Blue Eagle" in the N. R. A.

F. Lester, '28—Helped the new deal by serving on all sorts of county committees for drought relief.

G. Petrus, '28—Last summer worked with the Appalachian Forest Experiment Station on a Pulp Wood project. Have accepted a position as Ass't. District Forester with the State of Pennsylvania.

R. Rotty, '28—Recently transferred from Bessey District, Nebraska National Forest, to Pole Mt. District, Medicine Bow, Wyo. Have two sons.

W. W. Beveridge, '29—Saw A. Nichols in Albuquerque. This has been an exceptionally bad fire season. Up to date no class A fires.

G. Chapman, '29—Saw Andy Branch, E. McCormick, D. Ball and Bill Pinney.

L. Christensen, '29—Have been in the shoe business for the past two years but hope to get into the service this spring. Have one son one year old. Would like to hear from R. Olsen and some of the others of the '29 bunch.

J. W. Kulp, '29—J. Newville is Ass't Ranger on the Chippewa Nat'l Forest, Grand Rapids, Mich.

O. Lundberg, '29—I am housing and feeding C. C. C. men. I am First Lt. in a C.C.C. camp. N. Fullerton is less than one mile from here at the Blister Rust Control Headquarters. Dick Campbell is on this Forest.

W. Pinne, '29—Making a management plan for forest game and wild life for 40,000 acres of state land in Indiana.

Scholz, '29—At present I am engaged in Erosion control work. E. Hill is in a C.C.C. camp near West Salem. H. Carlson is assisting me at La Crosse.

Margaret Abell, '29—Petrus '28 is working for the A.F.E.S. as technician. He is working on a Pulp wood yield on the Costal Plain.

L. Burkett, '29—Mrs. Burkett and I moved from Pattiway, Calif. to Medford Wis. last June. I am District Ranger on the Mordeaux Nat'l For. D. Ball is new Ass't Supervisor. Visited Jack Diemer.

D. Holz, '29—Fred Gottschalk is E.C.W. project manager acting as Ass't Production Supervisor on the Zuni E.C.W.

W. Klug, '29—My wife passed away last Jan. 18th.

D. Millard, '29—Married last March. Took a district the first of July.

K. Moesner, '29—Son, born Aug., 1934.

G. Pecarro, '29—Still married and the "pappy" of one baby girl, age one year one month.

A. Branch, '31—B. Newland is Supt. at a camp located at Stearns, Ky. B. Pinne is Ass't Camp Supt. at Carydon, Indiana.

R. Chipman, '31—Stradt is cultural foreman in our C.C.C. camp.

H. Griswald, '31—32 fires on forest; more every day. G. Durrell and E. Potter are around here.

H. Newland, '31—Met A. Brands, State Forester of Ky. Am hoping that the E.C.W. will last long enough to enable me to save enough money to get up a small circular saw mill of my own.

C. T. Smith, '31—Stopped in at Ames this year; spoke in seminar. Saw Vinton, Iverson, Olson and several others.

W. Zimmerman, '31—Six miles from Canadian border by canoe. Side camps accessible by foot and canoe only. Saw A. Anderson and C. Swanson.

C. E. Anderson, '33—At present I am drawing up a management plan for this unit. I am glad I did not go in for research, like my present job better. We have had 190 fires since Jan. 1st. With on burn of 27 thousand acres.

R. Runn, '33—E. Olson and W. Stone worked on this forest.

L. Gibson, '33—Married Aug., 1934.

F. Gottschalk, '33—Not married yet. Saw D. Holtz, Dannen and Helm.

J. Jauch, '33—After I got my J. F., I went to Shasta, but came back to Custer, S. Dakota, at the beginning of the winter.

H. Stevenson, '33—Still single. Saw C. Martin who is gradually developing his nursery at Old Lyme, Conn., in spite of the depression.

L. Chisholm, '33—Married; 8 lb. baby girl. Saw Richman and Milius in Cook, Minn.

J. Hubbard, '33—Saw Richman, Steckler, Schulz, Diemer, Duerr, and Moser; all working at the station.

B. Hess, '33—Haven't we all married except Gottschalk.

H. Richman, '33—Passed the J. F. Working with the Lake States. Working on fire research. Worked with Milius this summer; also Lehman. Saw Aikman and Hubbard this summer.

J. Tustison, '33—Working on beer and whiskey barrel staves. Morebeck and Truax at the laboratory.